Last year we had to cancel a lot of trips. If you see a trip you are interested in, please come into the office and pay for that trip. If we have to cancel for any reason, you will get your money back. If you have to cancel, you will need to find someone to replace you and they will pay you for the trip. When you sign the sheet out front, you are not on the trip only interested. If there is somewhere you would like to go, please let us know.
